

Academic Resources for Fellows

Purpose

To clarify the resources that the Fellowship provides for residents.

Background

The Emergency Medicine PA Fellowship Program believes that physician assistants must begin early to develop life-long learning and academic development skills.

Responsibilities

The Emergency Medicine PA Fellowship will be responsible for:

- Resident expenses as outlined in the policy below
- Providing time off for the SEMPA conference

The Emergency Medicine Fellow will be responsible for:

- Expenses exceeding the policy below
- Arranging time off for activities other than the SEMPA conference.
- Keeping current with residency requirements.

Policy

- 1 All 18 months: Subscriptions to Rosh Review, and Membership to SEMPA.
- 2 All 18 months: National organization involvement --residents who are selected as resident representatives for national EM organizations (SEMPA, AAPA, etc) can receive up to $500.00 per academic year for expenses. Time off is to be arranged by the fellow as stated above.
- 3 Tintinalli is provided first year upon being accepted into the program. ACLS, ATLS and PALS Provider Course costs are covered by the fellowship. Cost for attendance at the SEMPA conference with time-off, if meeting fellowship requirements.
Fellowss that are not meeting fellowship requirements are not eligible to use residency funds or excused time off for travel.
- 4 The Department supports fellows to present research regionally and nationally. Arranging time off is the responsibility of the fellow. Stipend is determined by the Research Section (Dr. Mike Zwank) and may come from a combination of fellowship and departmental sources.
- 5 Fellow participation at other national and regional conferences may be supported by fellowship and departmental funds. Arranging time off is the responsibility of the fellow. The resident must be meeting all fellowship requirements, and funding will be addressed on a case by case basis.
