

Certifications

Purpose

To delineate the responsibilities regarding certification courses.

Responsibilities

ACLS Provider

Fellows will take ACLS course during the first year of Physician Assistant Fellowship orientation period, arranged by the fellowship. It is the fellows responsibility to maintain current certification thereafter as required.

ATLS Provider

Fellows will take ATLS course during the first year of Physician Assistant Fellowship orientation period or shortly after, arranged by the fellowship. It is the fellows responsibility to maintain current certification thereafter as required.

PALS provider

Fellows will take PALS course during the first year of Physician Assistant Fellowship orientation period, arranged by the fellowship. It is the fellows responsibility to maintain current certification thereafter as required.

Date Last Updated: September 20, 2022